

Republic of the Philippines
Supreme Court
Manila

SECOND DIVISION

FLORDELIZA E. COQUIA,
Complainant,

A.C. No. 9364
[Formerly CBD Case No. 13-3696]

Present:

CARPIO, J., Chairperson,
PERALTA,
MENDOZA,
LEONEN, and JARDELEZA,* JJ.

- versus -

ATTY. EMMANUEL E. LAFORTEZA,
Respondent.

Promulgated:

08 FEB 2017

X-----X

DECISION

PERALTA, J.

Before us is a Petition for Disbarment dated February 6, 2012 filed by Flordeliza E. Coquia<sup>1</sup> (Coquia) against respondent Atty. Emmanuel E. Laforteza (Atty. Laforteza), docketed as A.C. No. 9364, for Conduct Unbecoming of a Lawyer due to the unauthorized notarization of documents relative to Civil Case No. 18943.<sup>2</sup>

Atty. Laforteza was a former Clerk of Court of Regional Trial Court (RTC), Branch 68, Lingayen, Pangasinan, having assumed office in * Designated Additional Member per Special Order No. 2416, dated January 4, 2017.

<sup>1</sup> Rollo, pp. 1-4.

<sup>2</sup> Clemente Solis v. Flordeliza E. Coquia.

November 17, 2004 until January 31, 2011.<sup>3</sup> On February 1, 2011, Atty. Laforteza transferred to the Department of Justice.<sup>4</sup>

In her Complaint, Coquia alleged that on January 7, 2009, while in office as clerk of court, Atty. Laforteza conspired with Clemente Solis (Clemente) to falsify two (2) documents, to wit: (1) an Agreement between Clemente Solis and Flordeliza Coquia,<sup>5</sup> and the (2) Payment Agreement executed by Flordeliza Coquia, and subsequently notarized the said documents. Coquia claimed that the documents were forged to make it appear that on the said date, she subscribed and sworn to the said documents before Atty. Laforteza when in truth and in fact on the said date and time, she was attending to her classes at the Centro Escolar University in Manila as evidenced by the certified true copy of the Centro Escolar University Faculty Daily Time Record for the period of December 16, 2008 to January 14, 2009.<sup>6</sup>

Coquia asserted that under the law, Atty. Laforteza is not authorized to administer oath on documents not related to his functions and duties as Clerk of Court of RTC, Branch 68, Lingayen, Pangasinan. Thus, the instant complaint for disbarment for conduct unbecoming of a lawyer.

On January 12, 2012, the Office of the Bar Confidant referred the complaint to Atty. Cristina B. Layusa, Deputy Clerk of Court and Bar Confidant, Office of the Bar Confidant, Supreme Court, for appropriate action.<sup>7</sup>

On March 19, 2012, the Court resolved to require Atty. Laforteza to comment on the complaint against him.<sup>8</sup>

In compliance, Atty. Laforteza submitted his Comment<sup>9</sup> dated July 2, 2012 where he denied the allegations in the complaint. Atty. Laforteza recalled that on January 7, 2009, while attending to his work, fellow court employee, Luzviminda Solis (Luzviminda), wife of Clemente, with other persons, came to him. He claimed that Luzviminda introduced said persons to him as the same parties to the subject documents. Luzviminda requested him to subscribe the subject documents as proof of their transaction considering that they are blood relatives. Atty. Laforteza claimed that he hesitated at first and even directed them to seek the services of a notary

---

<sup>3</sup> Rollo, p. 45.

<sup>4</sup> On January 8, 2016, Atty. Emmanuel E. Laforteza was appointed as Prosecutor II in the OPP-Pangasinan, id. at 1.

<sup>5</sup> Rollo, pp. 10-11.

<sup>6</sup> Id. at 65.

<sup>7</sup> Id. at 19.

<sup>8</sup> Id. at 35.

<sup>9</sup> Id. at 45-49.

public but they insisted for his assistance and accommodation. Thus, in response to the exigency of the situation and thinking in all good faith that it would also serve the parties' interest having arrived at a settlement, Atty. Laforteza opted to perform the subscription of the jurat. He, however, insisted that at that time of subscription, after propounding some questions, he was actually convinced that the persons who came to him are the same parties to the said subject documents.<sup>10</sup>

Atty. Laforteza likewise denied that there was conspiracy or connivance between him and the Solis'. He pointed out that other than the subject documents and Coquia's bare allegation of conspiracy, no evidence was presented to substantiate the same. Atty. Laforteza lamented that he was also a victim of the circumstances with his reliance to the representations made before him. He invoked the presumption of regularity and extended his apology to this Court should his act as a subscribing officer be deemed improper.<sup>11</sup>

In a Joint-Affidavit<sup>12</sup> dated July 2, 2012 of Clemente and Luzviminda, both denied to have connived or conspired with Atty. Laforteza in the preparation and execution of the subject documents. They narrated that Atty. Laforteza in fact initially refused to grant their request to notarize the subject documents but they were able to convince him to assist them in the interest of justice. Clemente insisted that he was one of the signatories in the said documents and that he has personal knowledge that the signature of Coquia inscribed in the same documents are her true signatures having seen her affixed her signatures.<sup>13</sup>

On October 11, 2012, the Court resolved to refer the instant case to the Integrated Bar of the Philippines (IBP) for investigation, report and recommendation.<sup>14</sup>

During the mandatory conference, both parties agreed that Atty. Laforteza is authorized to administer oaths. However, as to the requirement to establish the identity of the parties, Atty. Laforteza admitted that he does not personally know both Coquia and Clemente, and he merely relied on Luzviminda and Lorna Viray, who are known to him as fellow court employees, to establish the identities of the parties. He likewise admitted that Coquia did not sign the documents in his presence and that someone present on the said date allegedly owned the signature of Coquia as hers.<sup>15</sup>

---

<sup>10</sup> Id. at 46.

<sup>11</sup> Id. at 47.

<sup>12</sup> Id. at 41-43.

<sup>13</sup> Id. at 42.

<sup>14</sup> Id. at 54.

<sup>15</sup> Id. at 88.

In its Report and Recommendation<sup>16</sup> dated December 18, 2013, the IBP-Commission on Bar Discipline (CBD) recommended that the instant complaint be dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence.

However, in a Notice of Resolution No. XXI-2014-818 dated October 11, 2014, the IBP-Board of Governors resolved to reversed and set aside the Report and Recommendation of the IBP-CBD, and instead reprimanded and cautioned Atty. Laforteza to be careful in performing his duties as subscribing officer.<sup>17</sup>

We concur with the findings of the IBP-Board of Governors, except as to the penalty.

In administrative cases for disbarment or suspension against lawyers, the quantum of proof required is clearly preponderant evidence and the burden of proof rests upon the complainant.<sup>18</sup> In the absence of cogent proof, bare allegations of misconduct cannot prevail over the presumption of regularity in the performance of official functions.<sup>19</sup>

In the instant case, We find that Coquia failed to present clear and preponderant evidence to show that Atty. Laforteza had direct and instrumental participation, or was in connivance with the Solis' in the preparation of the subject documents. While it may be assumed that Atty. Laforteza had a hand in the preparation of the subject documents, We cannot give evidentiary weight to such a supposition in the absence of any evidence to support it. The Court does not thus give credence to charges based on mere suspicion and speculation.<sup>20</sup>

As to the allegation of unauthorized notarization:

As early as the case of Borre v. Moya,<sup>21</sup> this Court had already clarified that the power of ex officio notaries public have been limited to notarial acts connected to the exercise of their official functions and duties.

Consequently, the empowerment of ex officio notaries public to perform acts within the competency of regular notaries public – such as acknowledgments, oaths and affirmations, jurats, signature witnessing, copy certifications, and other acts authorized under the 2004 Rules on Notarial Practice – is now more of an exception rather than a general rule. They may

---

<sup>16</sup> Id. at 88-89.

<sup>17</sup> Id. at 86-87.

<sup>18</sup> Cruz v. Atty. Centron, 484 Phil. 671, 675 (2004).

<sup>19</sup> Atty. Reyes v. Jamora, 634 Phil. 1, 7 (2010).

<sup>20</sup> Id.

<sup>21</sup> 188 Phil. 362, 369 (1980).

perform notarial acts on such documents that bear no relation to their official functions and duties only if (1) a certification is included in the notarized documents attesting to the lack of any other lawyer or notary public in the municipality or circuit; and (2) all notarial fees charged will be for the account of the government and turned over to the municipal treasurer. No compliance with these two requirements are present in this case.

In the instant case, it is undisputed that Atty. Laforteza notarized and administered oaths in documents that had no relation to his official function. The subject documents, to wit: (1) an Agreement between Clemente Solis and Flordeliza Coquia,<sup>22</sup> and the (2) Payment Agreement executed by Flordeliza Coquia, are both private documents which are unrelated to Atty. Laforteza's official functions. The civil case from where the subject documents originated is not even raffled in Branch 68 where Atty. Laforteza was assigned. While Atty. Laforteza serve as notary public ex officio and, thus, may notarize documents or administer oaths, he should not in his ex-officio capacity take part in the execution of private documents bearing no relation at all to his official functions.

Under the provisions of Section 41<sup>23</sup> (as amended by Section 2 of R. A. No. 6733<sup>24</sup>) and Section 242<sup>25</sup> of the Revised Administrative Code, in

---

<sup>22</sup> Rollo, pp. 10-11.

<sup>23</sup> Sec. 41. Officers Authorized to Administer Oath. The following officers have general authority to administer oaths: President; Vice-President; Members and Secretaries of both Houses of the Congress; Members of the Judiciary; Secretaries of Departments; provincial governors and lieutenant-governors; city mayors; municipal mayors; bureau directors; regional directors; clerks of courts; registrars of deeds; other civilian officers in the public service of the government of the Philippines whose appointments are vested in the President and are subject to confirmation by the Commission on Appointments; all other constitutional officers; and notaries public.

<sup>24</sup> An Act to Amend Section 21, Title I, Book I of the Revised Administrative Code of 1987, Granting Members of Both Houses of the Congress of the Philippines the General Authority to Administer Oaths, and for Other Purposes.

<sup>25</sup> Sec. 242. Officers acting as notaries public ex officio. - Except as otherwise specially provided, the following officials, and none other, shall be deemed to be notaries public ex officio, and as such they are authorized to perform, within the limits of their territorial jurisdiction as hereinbelow defined, all the duties appertaining to the office of notary public. (a) The Chief of the Division of Archives, Patents, Copyrights, and Trade-marks, the Clerk of the Supreme Court, the Clerk of the Court of First Instance of the Ninth Judicial District, the Chief of the General Land Registration Office, and the Superintendent of the Postal Savings Bank Division, Bureau of Posts when acting within the limits of the City of Manila. (b) Clerks of Courts of First Instance outside of the City of Manila, when acting within the judicial districts to which they respectively pertain. (c) Justices of the peace, within the limits of the territory over which their jurisdiction as justices of the peace extends; but auxiliary justices of the peace and other officers who are by law vested with the office of justice of the peace ex officio shall not, solely by reason of such authority, be also entitled to act in the capacity of notaries ex officio. (d) Any government officer or employee of the Department of Mindanao and Sulu appointed notary public ex officio by the judge of the Court of First Instance, with jurisdiction coextensive with the province wherein the appointee is stationed, and for a term of two years beginning upon the first day of January of the year in which the appointment is made. [The Department of Mindanao and Sulu, as a special political division has been abolished by section 1 of Act 2878.] The authority conferred in subsections (a) and (b) hereof may, in the absence of the chief or clerk of court, be exercised by an assistant chief, acting chief, or deputy clerk of court pertaining to the office in question.

relation to Sections G,<sup>26</sup> M<sup>27</sup> and N,<sup>28</sup> Chapter VIII of the Manual for Clerks of Court, Clerks of Court are notaries public ex officio, and may thus notarize documents or administer oaths but only when the matter is related to the exercise of their official functions.<sup>29</sup> In Exec. Judge Astorga v. Solas,<sup>30</sup> the Court ruled that clerks of court should not, in their ex-officio capacity, take part in the execution of private documents bearing no relation at all to their official functions. Notarization of documents that have no relation to the performance of their official functions is now considered to be beyond the scope of their authority as notaries public ex officio. Any one of them who does so would be committing an unauthorized notarial act, which amounts to engaging in the unauthorized practice of law and abuse of authority.

As to the Violation of Notarial Law:

We likewise agree and adopt the findings of the IBP-Board of Governors which found Atty. Laforteza to have violated the Notarial Law.

In this case, it is undisputed that Atty. Laforteza failed to comply with the rules of notarial law. He admitted that he notarized a pre-signed subject document presented to him. He also admitted his failure to personally verify the identity of all parties who purportedly signed the subject documents and who, as he claimed, appeared before him on January 7, 2009 as he merely relied upon the assurance of Luzviminda that her companions are the actual signatories to the said documents. In ascertaining the identities of the parties, Atty. Laforteza contented himself after propounding several questions only despite the Rules' clear requirement of presentation of competent evidence of identity such as an identification card with photograph and signature. Such failure to verify the identities of the parties was further shown by the fact that the pertinent identification details of the parties to the subject documents, as proof of their identity, were lacking in the subject documents' acknowledgment portion. Atty. Laforteza even affixed his signature in an incomplete notarial certificate. From the foregoing, it can be clearly concluded that there was a failure on the part of Atty. Laforteza to exercise the due diligence required of him as a notary public ex-officio.

---

<sup>26</sup> The provisions of Section G, Chapter VIII of the Manual for Clerks of Court are essentially the same as the provisions of Section 242 of the Revised Administrative Code.

<sup>27</sup> The provisions of Section M, Chapter VIII of the Manual for Clerks of Court are lifted from Section 41 of the Revised Administrative Code, as amended.

<sup>28</sup> Section N. DUTY TO ADMINISTER OATH. Officers authorized to administer oaths, with the exception of notaries public, municipal judges and clerks of court, are not obliged to administer oaths or execute certificates save in matters of official business; and with the exception of notaries public, the officer performing the service in those matters shall charge no fee, unless specifically authorized by law. (Emphasis ours)

<sup>29</sup> Exec. Judge Astorga v. Solas, 413 Phil. 558, 562 (2001).

<sup>30</sup> Supra.

Notarization of documents ensures the authenticity and reliability of a document. Notarization of a private document converts such document into a public one, and renders it admissible in court without further proof of its authenticity. Courts, administrative agencies and the public at large must be able to rely upon the acknowledgment executed by a notary public and appended to a private instrument. Notarization is not an empty routine; to the contrary, it engages public interest in a substantial degree and the protection of that interest requires preventing those who are not qualified or authorized to act as notaries public from imposing upon the public and the courts and administrative offices generally.<sup>31</sup>

Hence, a notary public should not notarize a document unless the persons who signed the same are the very same persons who executed and personally appeared before him to attest to the contents and truth of what are stated therein. The purpose of this requirement is to enable the notary public to verify the genuineness of the signature of the acknowledging party and to ascertain that the document is the party's free act and deed.<sup>32</sup>

The 2004 Rules on Notarial Practice stresses the necessity of the affiant's personal appearance before the notary public Rule II, Section 1 states:

SECTION 1. Acknowledgment.—"Acknowledgment" refers to an act in which an individual on a single occasion:

(a) appears in person before the notary public and presents and integrally complete instrument or document;

(b) is attested to be personally known to the notary public or identified by the notary public through competent evidence of identity as defined by these Rules; and

(c) represents to the notary public that the signature on the instrument or document was voluntarily affixed by him for the purposes stated in the instrument or document, declares that he has executed the instrument or document as his free and voluntary act and deed, and, if he acts in a particular representative capacity, that he has the authority to sign in that capacity. (Emphasis supplied)

Rule IV, Section 2(b) further states:

---

<sup>31</sup> Sps. Anudon v. Atty. Cefra, A.C. No. 5482, February 10, 2015, 750 SCRA 231, 240.

<sup>32</sup> Id.

SEC. 2. Prohibitions. — x x x

(b) A person shall not perform a notarial act if the person involved as signatory to the instrument or document —

(1) is not in the notary's presence personally at the time of the notarization; and

(2) is not personally known to the notary public or otherwise identified by the notary public through competent evidence of identity as defined by these Rules.

Thus, a document should not be notarized unless the persons who are executing it are the very same ones who are personally appearing before the notary public. The affiants should be present to attest to the truth of the contents of the document and to enable the notary to verify the genuineness of their signature. Notaries public are enjoined from notarizing a fictitious or spurious document. In fact, it is their duty to demand that the document presented to them for notarization be signed in their presence. Their function is, among others, to guard against illegal deeds.<sup>33</sup> For this reason, notaries public must observe with utmost care the basic requirements in the performance of their duties. Otherwise, the confidence of the public in the integrity of this form of conveyance would be undermined.<sup>34</sup>

PENALTY

While Atty. Laforteza was merely an ex-officio notary public by virtue of his position as clerk of court then, it did not relieve him of compliance with the same standards and obligations imposed upon other commissioned notaries public.<sup>35</sup> However, this Court can no longer acquire administrative jurisdiction over Atty. Laforteza for the purpose of imposing disciplinary sanctions over erring court employees since the instant complaint against him was filed after he has ceased to be a court employee.

In Talisic vs. Atty. Rinen,<sup>36</sup> respondent, as ex-officio notary public, failed to verify the identity of all the parties to the document. Thus, the Court ordered his notarial commission revoked and disqualified him from being commissioned as a notary public for a period of one year. We deem it proper to impose the same penalty.

<sup>33</sup> Sps. Domingo v. Reed, 513 Phil. 339, 350 (2005).

<sup>34</sup> Supra note 21.

<sup>35</sup> 726 Phil. 497, 501 (2014).

<sup>36</sup> Supra.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, Atty. Emmanuel E. Laforteza's notarial commission, if there is any, is REVOKED, and he is DISQUALIFIED from being commissioned as a notary public for a period of one (1) year. He is likewise STERNLY WARNED that a repetition of the same or similar acts will be dealt with more severely.

Let copies of this Decision be furnished the Office of the Bar Confidant, to be appended to Atty. Laforteza's personal record. Further, let copies of this Resolution be furnished the Integrated Bar of the Philippines and the Office of the Court Administrator, which is directed to circulate them to all the courts in the country for their information and guidance.

SO ORDERED.

DIOSDADO M. PERALTA
Associate Justice

WE CONCUR:

ANTONIO T. CARPIO
Associate Justice
Chairperson

JOSE CATRAL MENDOZA
Associate Justice

MARVIC M.V.F. LEONEN
Associate Justice

FRANCIS H. JARDELEZA
Associate Justice

